

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL.

MEMPHIS, FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 1860.

VOLUME XI—NUMBER 64.

BY MCCLANAHAN, TROUSDALE & DILL

Daily Appeal.

THE CONSTITUTION, OR NO UNION.

The present position of political parties in the country, the result of the last election, has led to the conclusion, that most discriminating Abolitionists, and the wiser actionaries, believe it to be the highest duty which can be exercised by any one, to expose the errors of their party, and to exercise the privilege of voting in favor of that party, which will most nearly carry out the principles of the Constitution, upon which these have been based.

The author of the following paper, writing with sorrow, in common with the rest of the nation, to the Constitution, and to the Union, the safety of which, is now more than ever, dependent upon the wisest actionaries.

William H. Seward, of New York, declared that there was an "irreconcilable difference between the two great parties."
